

Objectives of the training and targeted skills

Acquire level A1 according to the European Framework of Reference for Languages:

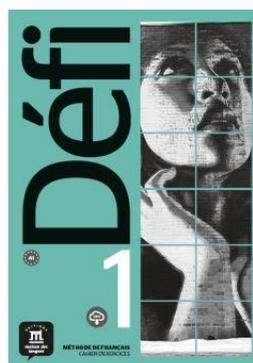

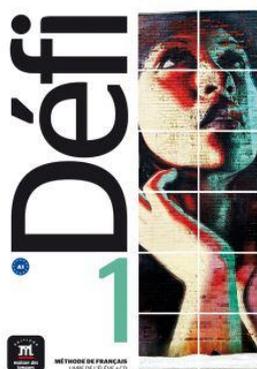

"The A1 level user can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. - Can introduce him/herself and others and can answer the same type of questions. Can communicate in a simple way if the other person speaks slowly and clearly and is cooperative."

Obtaining the A1 level requires 60 to 90 hours of training and individual practice: homework and practice of the language in French society.

At the end of an A1 level course, the learner has acquired the following skills

UNDERSTAND		SPEAK		WRITE
Listen to	Read	Take part in a conversation	Express oneself orally in a continuous manner	Write
I can understand familiar words and very common expressions about myself, my family and my immediate concrete environment if people speak slowly and clearly.	I can understand familiar words, words and very simple sentences, for example in advertisements, posters or catalogs.	I can communicate in a simple way, provided the other person is willing to repeat or rephrase his/her sentences more slowly and help me formulate what I am trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions on familiar topics or about what I need immediately.	I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and the people I know.	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example from a vacation. I can fill in personal details in a questionnaire, e.g. write my name, nationality and address on a hotel form.

In order to acquire these skills, the training program is broken down as follows, following the manual chosen by the Alliance Française de Lille: Défi 1 from the Editions Maisons des Langues: <https://www.emdl.fr/fle/catalogue/adultes/defi>.
